

Fast Track Skills Seminar Intercultural Savvy - "ASK"

Intercultural Savvy & Communication

Companies are merging, services and people are being off-shored or out/in-sourced; qualified skills and knowledge is migrating, and then, there is cross border, division and team reorganization. Simply said, changes everywhere!

There are also the challenges that language creates like to doing business.

ASK! Awareness – Skills – Knowledge, based on competencies and communication, need to be merged to ensure seamless intercultural interactions and business success.

Who is this for?

You. Everyone. Especially business leaders working in a culturally diverse environment. We know that intercultural savvy is really important, not just because we have to deal with globalization, but also because national work forces are becoming more and more diverse.

What's it about?

The hard facts about soft skills:

Awareness – consciousness – mindfulness

Skills – competencies – understanding

Knowledge – know-how - wisdom

Session 1: us vs. them, understanding own culture in order to understand theirs, stereotyping, and dealing with discomfort, inclusion vs. exclusion

Fast Track Skills Seminar Intercultural Savvy - "ASK"

Session 2: verbal and non-verbal messaging, strategies for working with linguistically diverse employees.

Session 3: cultural orientations related to power distance, time, decision making, and conflict

How long?

Each session is 2hrs = 6hours

What do you pay?

My normal hourly rate is €120

Your price: PWYW from €20 (min 2 persons) per person per hour(1:1 or Skype)

Company price: pls. contact me

What is PWYW?

PWYW stands for Pay What You Want.

It is also known as Pay What You Can, Pay What You Like or Pay What Your Heart Feels.

I believe personal development through improved skills and communication should be affordable for everyone, so you decide what you can pay (as indicated), commit to the price and I assist you in your growth.

Cool? Cool!

You don't go home empty handed!

You get handouts and a certificate if you attend all the sessions!

Get it!